Premium Support

Service Excellence... Why settle for less?

Need expert help and support for HPE Content Manager (HPE CM). Kapish offers a range of Premium Support Packages to suit organisations of all sizes. Choose a Gold or Silver Premium Support Package or tailor a support package to suit your specific requirements.

Support Package Options

Gold Support

A comprehensive package to suit organisations that require support for HPE CM during business hours, with scheduled support outside of business hours.

Silver Support

A support package to suit organisations seeking a cost-effective support solution that doesn't compromise on quality. Includes support for HPE CM during business hours, with scheduled support outside of business hours available on request.

Custom Support

Our Custom Support Agreements can be customised to suit your specific requirements.

Managed Services

Recruiting staff with the appropriate skills and experience to manage your HPE CM implementation can be difficult and costly for organisations. Engaging a service partner to provide these services can be a cost-effective solution, allowing your internal staff to focus on other core business activities.

Kapish Managed Services are tailored to provide an end-to-end solution for managing HPE CM implementations of all sizes.

Benefits

Knowing Your Environment

It's our in-depth understanding of your technical environment and the way you use HPE CM that enables our support staff to fast-track your support requests.

Notifications Related To Your Environment

Our support staff can notify you if we identify an issue that you may be experiencing but are not yet aware of, or if we have identified a new release of HPE CM that provides new functionality or enhancements that may be of interest to you.

Included Hours

All our Premium Support Agreements include pre-purchased time for onsite support, consulting or project work which can be used at your discretion. This allows quick access to our experienced team of consultants and software developers when you need it.

Reduced Consulting Rates

Our Premium Support customers enjoy reduced consulting rates which may be used for any onsite consulting or HPE CM related projects including software development, upgrades and more.
