Terms and Conditions

SAP LeanIX

V1.3 April 2024

Last updated: 22/04/2024

Terms and Conditions

These Terms and Conditions apply in relation to the provision of certain services contemplated in the Order Form.

Explanatory Note

The Services provided under these Terms and Conditions comprise certain services that are provided by LeanIX and sold to Customer (i.e. the LeanIX Services) and other services to be provided by Kapish (i.e. the Kapish Services).

Where different terms apply to the Kapish Services and the LeanIX Services under these Terms and Conditions, the different terms applicable to the LeanIX Services are the terms on which those services are generally set by LeanIX for its own customers.

1. Services

1.1. General

Kapish will provide, or procure the provision of, the Services to the Customer on and subject to these Terms and Conditions.

1.2. Subscription Services

- (a) Customer acknowledges that it enters into the SAP Agreement with LeanIX, via Kapish as the Partner.
- (b) Subject to the Customer's compliance with the Cloud EULA Acceptance Form and the SAP Agreement, the Customer is licensed to access and use the Subscription Services on a non-exclusive, non-transferable, worldwide basis for the Subscription Term for the Customer's (and its Affiliates') internal business purposes, up to the Licensed Volume. However, this licence specifically excludes (and nothing in this Agreement or otherwise gives the Customer) any rights in relation to the source code of the Subscription Services.

- (c) The Customer may provide Permitted Users with login credentials that will enable them to access and use the Subscription Services. The Customer is responsible for all actions taken by Permitted Users or by anyone using login credentials assigned to the Customer or its Permitted Users.

1.3. Support Services

- (a) Whilst Kapish may use its reasonable endeavours to attempt to remedy Defects in the Subscription Services in the first instance following notification from the Customer, the Customer acknowledges Support Services shall be provided by LeanIX.

LeanIX will liaise directly with the Customer where the relevant Defect in the Subscription Services is reported to LeanIX by either Customer or Kapish.

- (b) Support Services will include certain Defect rectification services, certain maintenance services and the provision of certain updates for the Subscription Services.

1.4. Kapish Services

- (a) This clause 1.4 applies where the Order Form specifies Kapish Services are to be provided by Kapish to the Customer.
- (b) Kapish will provide the Kapish Services to the Customer with skill, care, and diligence consistent with industry standards and in compliance with all applicable Laws (excluding Laws that solely apply to the Customer or to the section of the market to which the Customer belongs).
- (c) Where the Order Form specifies one or more milestone dates for the provision of the Kapish Services, Kapish will use its reasonable endeavours to meet those milestone dates in providing the Kapish Services.
- (d) In addition to the responsibilities of the Customer specified in section 4 of the Order Form, the Customer must: (i) promptly respond to Kapish's queries, and provide any assistance and information Kapish reasonably requires to provide the Kapish Services; and (ii) perform its responsibilities under this clause (d) and section 4 of the Order Form in a timely manner, including as reasonably required by Kapish.

2. Fees

2.1. Fees

- (a) The Customer will pay the Fees to Kapish in accordance with this clause 2 and will also reimburse Kapish for out-of-pocket expenses that have been pre-approved by the Customer and have been incurred in the provision of the Kapish Services. Except as provided for in clauses 3.3(c)(iii) and 6.3(c), all amounts paid by the Customer are non-refundable and payment obligations are non-cancellable.

- (b) The Customer will pay: (i) in respect of Kapish Services (if any), and Subscription Services and Support Services performed during the Initial Subscription Term, the Fees set out in the Order Form by the date(s) specified in the Order Form; and (ii) in respect of Subscription Services and Support Services for each Subscription Renewal Period, the applicable Fees (as contemplated in clause 2.2 below) in advance of commencement of the Subscription Renewal Period.
- (c) Kapish will provide a valid tax invoice in relation to Fees charged to the Customer.
- (d) If Customer fails to pay any sum due under this Agreement by the due date, then (without limiting any rights or remedies Kapish may have) the Customer must pay late fees to Kapish on that sum until the date of payment at a rate of 1.5% per month (or, if lower, the maximum amount permitted by Law).

2.2. Subscription Renewal Periods

- (a) Kapish may advise the Customer of updated Fees for Subscription Services and Support Services that will apply during a Subscription Renewal Period at least 90 days before the commencement of that Subscription Renewal Period or as may be specified in the Cloud EULA Acceptance Form and SAP Agreement.

2.3. Taxes and GST

- (a) All Fees are exclusive of Taxes and, except as expressly provided for in these Terms and Conditions, Customer will be responsible for all Taxes. The Customer will pay or reimburse Kapish for those Taxes incurred or levied in connection with an Order Form, and all Fees must be paid by Customer without any deduction or withholding on account of Taxes.

In the event Customer is required to deduct or withhold Taxes from its payment of Fees, the Fees will be automatically increased so that, after making all required deductions and withholdings, Kapish receives and retains an amount equal to the amount it would have received had no deductions or withholdings been required to be made. If Customer is a tax-exempt organization, the Customer must notify and provide sufficient supporting evidence to Kapish, in which case Kapish will not charge Customer any taxes from which Customer is exempt.

- (b) Unless specified otherwise on an Order Form, all amounts payable under an Order Form are exclusive of GST. If one party ("supplying party") makes a taxable supply under or in connection with an Order Form and the consideration for that supply does not expressly include GST, the party that is liable to provide the consideration ("receiving party") must also pay an additional amount equal to the GST payable on that supply. The receiving party must pay the additional GST amount at the same time and in the same manner as the other consideration for the taxable supply to which the additional GST amount relates, but subject to the provision by the supplying party of a valid tax invoice in accordance with the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (Cth). In this clause 2.3(b): (i) terms used have the same meaning as in the A New Tax System (Goods and Services Tax) Act 1999 (Cth) (GST Act) unless the context suggests otherwise; (ii) any part of a supply that is treated as a separate supply for GST purposes (including attributing GST payable to tax periods) will be treated as a separate supply; and (iii) a reference to something done (including a supply made) by a party includes a reference to something done by any entity on whose behalf that party is acting.

3. Term and Termination

3.1. Term and Subscription Term

- (a) This Agreement commences on the Effective Date and continues until the expiry of the Subscription Term.
- (b) Subject to clause 3.1(d) below the Subscription Services will commence on the Subscription Commencement Date and will continue for the Initial Subscription Term, unless this Agreement is terminated earlier in accordance with clause 3.2.
- (c) On completion of the Initial Subscription Term, the Subscription Term of the Subscription Services will automatically continue for consecutive Subscription Renewal Periods unless otherwise permitted in the SAP Agreement.

3.2. Termination

(iii) if the other Party becomes the subject of an Insolvency Event.

- (b) The Customer may terminate the Subscription Services in accordance with the SAP Agreement.
- (c) In addition to its rights under clause 3.2(b) above, upon written notice to the Customer, Kapish may immediately terminate this Agreement if it no longer is a Partner of LeanIX. In these circumstances, clause 5 of the Cloud EULA in the SAP Agreement shall apply.
- (d) This clause 3.2 and the other express rights provided for in this Agreement constitute the only circumstances in which a party may terminate this Agreement. To the extent permitted by Law, all other rights to terminate this Agreement at Law are hereby excluded.

3.3. Effect of Termination

- (a) Expiry or termination of this Agreement does not impact any accrued rights of either party arising before the date of expiry or termination of this Agreement.
- (b) The Customer acknowledges and agrees that LeanIX may retain Customer Data for Customer to recover for a period of 30 days after expiry or termination of this Agreement (Retention Period). Unless prohibited by Law, Kapish will procure that LeanIX delete all Customer Data after expiry of the Retention Period.
- (c) On termination or expiry of this Agreement:
 - (i) Customer must cease to access and use the Services, and its rights under this Agreement (including the Order Form) to receive, access and/or use all Services will immediately terminate;

(ii) except as contemplated in clause 3.3(b), each party must (at the election of the other party) return or destroy the Confidential Information of the other party; and (iii) unless otherwise agreed in writing, Kapish will have no requirement to provide any transitional or disengagement services.

3.4. Survival

- (b) A receiving party may disclose Confidential Information of the disclosing party as required to comply with Law, provided that the receiving party (i) gives the disclosing party reasonable prompt notice to allow it to seek a protective order or other appropriate remedy (to the extent the foregoing is allowed under Laws);

(ii) discloses only such information as required by Law; and (iii) uses its commercially reasonable efforts to obtain confidential treatment for any Confidential Information so disclosed.

5. Intellectual Property

The Customer will promptly do all things reasonably necessary, including executing further documentation, to give effect to the assignment of Intellectual Property Rights to Kapish under this clause 5.1(b).
